Statute of entrance and membership fees Barley, Malt and Beer Union

1. General part

1.1. The present Statute determines: types, amount, periodicity, order and control of membership fees payment by members of the Barley, Malt, Hops and Beer Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union).

2. Types of payment

2.1. Entrance fee is paid in a lump sum by members of the Union when joining it. The date of payment of the entrance fee is deemed to be the date of admission to the membership.

2.2. Regular (annual) membership fees, the payment of those serves to confirm the membership in the Union.

2.3. Donations are paid by members of the Union voluntarily.

2.4. Optional contributions are the contributions to the Charter purposes of the Union without specifying a particular purpose. Optional contributions are paid by members of the Union beside entrance and annual membership fees.

A member of the Union has the right to transfer optional contributions to the account of the Union voluntarily in any accounting period.

2.5. Special-purpose contributions are paid by members of the Union for particular events and programs.

The funds received from special-purpose contributions are used to finance particular events of the Union.

The payment of donations and optional contributions does not release the members of the Union from regular (annual) membership fees.

3. Amount of payment

3.1. The amount of entrance fee payment is calculated individually for every member of the Union in accordance with the following rule:

The members of the Union with the total volume of production and/or sales more than 3,0 mln hectoliters of beer and non-alcoholic beverages or 50.000 tons of malt and/or 50.000 tons of malting barley a year, pay the entrance fee in the amount of 400.000 (four hundred thousand) rubles.

Per every additional 1 mln hectoliters of beer and non-alcoholic beverages a year to 10 mln hectoliters a year, as well as per every additional 10.000 tons of malt and/or malting barley a year to 100.000 tons a year, an additional entrance fee in the amount of 40.000 (forty thousand) rubles is paid.
